Acheson Faces New Attacks On His Testimony

Secretary Of State Again Witness In MacArthur Probe

By JAMES LEE

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Secretary of State Acheson today began his fifth round of testimony in the Senate's MacArthur dismissal inquiry and Republicans launched a new attack on administration foreign policy.

GOP senators claimed to have evidence refuting Acheson's contention that it was necessary to "pay a price" to Russia at the Yalta conference.

Sen. Knowland (R) Calif., said he would attempt to prove that U.S. naval experts believed in 1945 that Japan could be conquered by blockade, rather than by invasion.

Would Contradict

The Californian said this would contradict Acheson's explanation that Russia had to be "paid" at the Yalta conference to insure her entrance into the Pacific War at a time when the U.S. did not know whether or not it had an atomic bomb.

Huge Rock Blocks Road Traffic

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WIS.—A huge rock 26 by 30 by 15 feet in dimension, blocked the state highway 35 traffic along the Mississippi river, north of here for two days. Crews are shown removing large sections left after the major portion was blasted by dynamite.

Appropriations For Hospitals Before State Legislature

Appropriations for state aided hospitals has been put into the legislative hopper in Harrisburg. Whether or not it comes out as it has gone in is questionable, due to the present tax muddle.

As the bills stand now, the Jameson Memorial Hospital of New Castle would get $36,000 and the Ellwood City Hospital $18,000. The Margaret Henry Home for Children would get $2,000, the Al-mira Home Association, $7500 and the George Junior Republic of Grove City $28,000.

Heavy Losses Are Sustained By Red Forces

Some Gains Reported South Of Key Hub Of Kumhwa Today

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, June 6.—Counter-attacking Chinese Reds, including many fanatical teen-agers, were hammered back by Allied troops with big casualties today in furious fighting south of the key hub of Kumhwa in central North Korea.

United Nations assault columns then swept forward another 1,500 yards toward the pivotal rail-highway center while other Allied units carved out gains up to nearly two miles elsewhere along the Korean front.

A Wednesday night central front dispatch told of the grinding new UN advance northwest of Hwachon against "stiff opposition from Chinese battling to save Kumhwa," 18 miles north of Parallel 38.

Bus Operators Still On Strike

Mayor May Seek Conferences To Start Negotiations

There are no new developments in the strike of city bus operators here, Sharon and Farrell, president of the bus operators union.

Today the employers went to the Taylor Street garage here, and received their pay.

The belt money, or change given operators by the company, when they start to work, was deducted from their pay.

Fisher, in commenting on the statement of President Samuel Friedman, yesterday, in which Friedman said the next move was up to the strikers, stated, "Mr. Friedman's statement was a little misleading. The next move is not up to us, but up to the company. The union is willing to meet with Mr. Friedman, day or night, but will not consider his offer of a raise of six cents an hour."

Mayor John F. Haven and Councilman Joe Medure discussed the strike situation this morning.

Mr. Medure asked the mayor if anything was being done toward settling the strike.

The mayor said that he was of the opinion that both sides of the controversy were, at present, hot, and needed several days cooling off.

He indicated that he may attempt to bring the two factions together within the next several days in an effort to settle the strike here.

KOREA—United Nations troops (black arrows) drove to within nine miles of Chongwon and 12 miles of Kumhwa, base cities in the "Iron Triangle" where the Reds are believed massing 200,000 troops. Communist troops were retreating all along the Korean front covering their retreat with mines and artillery barrages. In the eastern mountains, near Kansong 27 miles north of the 38th parallel the enemy counter-attacked, but were repulsed by ROK units.

Gen. Eisenhower Revisits Normandy Beaches Today

PARIS, June 6.—(INS)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower will revisit the Normandy beaches today where, exactly seven years ago, his army—the greatest ever assembled—stormed ashore in what proved to be the decisive campaign of World War II.

And today, as in 1944, the popular American five-starred general will be in command of an international army, the forces of the North Atlantic treaty organization.

Gen. Eisenhower is scheduled to make a number of speeches commemorating D-day during his flying visit to Normandy.

But before his departure from Paris, Gen. Eisenhower will confer with Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the U. S. joint chiefs of staff, and others, on the question of creating new allied air bases in Europe and the Mediterranean area.

Later in the day Bradley will fly to London where he will talk over the question of the defenses of the Mediterranean area.

Few Changes In Controls Law Are Indicated

By CHARLES B. SEIB

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—(INS)

The administration was warned today by the senate banking committee's ranking Republican that few of its proposals for tightening the controls law will get through congress.

Sen. Capehart (R) Ind., predicted that in place of the drastic changes asked by the White House the bill extending the controls authority will be very similar to the original authority—the defense production act of 1950.

May Be Few Changes

Capehart said that there might be "a few changes" in the law, but not many. He also predicted that because the present law is due to die June 30, there will be stop-gap extension, followed by a one-year bill.

Banking committee chairman Maybank (D) S. C. has also predicted a stop-gap extension would be needed and has indicated that he does not favor a number of the administration's demands.

For a month Maybank's committee has been hearing testimony

U.S. Demands Russia Pay Indemnity

WASHINGTON, June 6.—(INS)

The United States demanded today that the Soviet Union pay indemnity to the family of an American soldier who was shot and killed in Vienna without reason by two Russians.

The incident occurred in the international district of Vienna last May 4. The U. S. soldier was Cpl. Paul J. Gressens who was on duty with another unidentified soldier on military police duties.

In a note to Russia, the U. S. said Gressens and his companion apprehended two armed Soviet soldiers who were behaving suspiciously and latter opened fire "without provocation."

The American note related also that an effort was made for a joint U. S.-Soviet investigation to establish responsibility and to adopt measures to prevent any possible repetition.

But the Soviet high commissioner in Vienna refused to permit the Soviet soldiers to be questioned or to make any other thorough inquiry.

The note said that it is convinced that Gressens was a victim of an unjustified attack and that the Soviet high commissioner by his actions has condoned this crime. It added:

It is hoped to have the pool in operation by July 15.

By RAYMOND WILCOVE

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The house ways and means committee will begin final voting today on its 7.2 billion dollar tax increase bill and hopes to finish this week.

All decisions so far have been tentative and subject to reconsideration. The committee can now stamp its approval on each tax hike, reject it or revise it.

Little change is expected, however, in the proposals adopted. They are designed to bring in an additional $7,188,044,000 of the 10 billion dollars requested by President Truman.

Major Increases

The major revenue increases worked out by the committees are: Individual income taxes, $2,895,000,000; corporation income taxes, $2,080,000,000; excess profits corporation taxes, $730,000,000; excise (consumer) taxes, $1,183,044,000.

Cattlemen To Give Views On Price Controls

By FREEMAN FULBRIGHT

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Cattlemen who spent 90 minutes telling President Truman what they think of the beef price controls tell to the Office of Price Stabilization today with charts and figures.

But if the attitude of Price Director DiSalle is any indication, there'll be no change resulting from the beef conference.

DiSalle told newsmen that "apparently some cattlemen and feeders are withholding livestock from the market to see if the rollback will be rescinded. Well, it won't be."

The chief of OPS' meat division said meanwhile that an order fixing dollar-and-cent ceilings on veal prices from slaughterer to dinner table will be issued "toward the end of the month."

Anniversary Of D-Day Is Passed Without Notice

FRANKFURT, June 6.—(INS)—The seventh anniversary of D-Day passed virtually unnoticed and remained uncelebrated today in defeated Germany.

The only official event on the occupation Day holiday was a tour by West German officials of American key forward air bases near the iron curtain and other important defense installations in the U. S. zone.

U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy and American military leaders conducted the airborne tour of top German officials.

The party was briefed on airborne assault methods and witnessed a paratroop drop.

By JOHN PAGET

HARRISBURG, June 6.—The appearance of a $624,115,000 general appropriation bill for the commonwealth's 1951-53 biennium spurred the general assembly toward a tentative early-July adjournment goal.

The omnibus measure, $4,176,185 above the sum recommended to the Republican-controlled assembly by Gov. John S. Fine, will provide funds for normal state government operations during the two years ending May 31, 1953.

Also introduced was a bill providing $15,989,300 for state-aided hospitals during the next biennium.

007,000,000, including liquor, beer and wine, $250,000,000; cigarettes $177,000,000, and gasoline $210,000,000.

Tax boosts tentatively approved by the committee also include: Withholding tax on corporation and bank dividends and interest, $330,000,000; passenger cars, $196,000,000; trucks, $61,000,000; auto parts and accessories, $56,000,000; Electric, gas and oil appliances, $20,000,000; jewelry, $38,000,000.

Tax On Betting

The committee has also tentatively approved a 10 per cent tax on betting, but has made no estimate of how much this levy might bring in.

In addition to tax boosts, the committee has voted 173 million dollars in tax reductions. It granted tax cuts to producers of coal, sand, gravel, etc., and non-married family heads.

It also reduced some of the admission taxes and the levies on domestic telegrams and certain toilet preparations and sporting goods and cut the impost on liquor used for medicinal purposes and in flavoring extracts.

MAY ATTEMPT TO REVIVE INCOME TAX

Lieutenants will make a final drive among rebellious Republican Senators to revive the House-approved flat income tax proposal now stalled by opposition in the GOP Senate caucus.

Fine will meet with Senators next week during a recess forced by a lack of hotel accommodations during a statewide convention of a Masonic women's organization.

The consensus is that if the administration fails to try the controversial income levy free of the Senate, there will be little else left for Fine to do but order sweeping dollars-and-cents across-the-board reductions in all state operations to make up the 111 million dollars proposed for rounding out the budget.

CATTLEMEN TO GIVE VIEWS ON CONTROLS

no controls will be placed on live calf prices although on May 15 they were 150 per cent of parity.

Results Of Move

A total 19 per cent rollback in live cattle prices ordered by OPS has led to congressional threats to kill the control program, scattered beef shortages, lowered market receipts and worker layoffs by some packers who claim they cannot buy beef cattle under government ceilings.

Erickson refused to say whether veal prices will be rolled back or fixed at current levels, insisting that has not been decided yet by top agency officials.

Erickson meets today with a delegation of western cattlemen led by former Oklahoma Gov. Roy Turner.

Turner and other cattle producers, feeders and commission merchants were closeted late yesterday with President Truman and his top mobilization chiefs—Defense Mobilizer Wilson, Economic Stabilizer Johnston and price boss DiSalle.

Turner told newsmen he left the White House that everyone in his group is "willing to go along" with the government "on the best way to handle the problem."

The former Oklahoma governor and other members of the delegation refused to disclose details of the conference because it "was the president's meeting."

barrages, was resumed after the bloody repulse of a Communist courier-slaughter Wednesday morning.

The field dispatch, from International News Service War Correspondent Cecil Browlow, quoted an Allied front line officer as saying that most of the attacking Chinese were "in their teens and without fear of death."

The young fanatics apparently had been thrown into battle with orders to stop at all costs the Allied push toward Kumhwa and the heart of North Korea's "Iron Triangle."

Allies Ram Northward

In the west, Allied columns rammed northward another 3,000 yards above Yonchon Wednesday after smashing within 12 miles of Chorwon, southwest peg of the triangular area containing vital roads and supplies.

Just east of that sector, however, UN forces were able to gain only 1,000 yards north of Yonpyong against the Eight Army's Wednesday night offensive termed "heavy small arms fire" from Communist troops.

Only "light to moderate resistance," the bulletin said, was experienced by other Allied assault forces east of Yonpyong in the west-central sector as they gouged out another 3,000-yard advance. There the Chinese were opposing the UN drive with some artillery fire.

New Gains Made were made by UN troops attacking New gains up to 3,000 yards also north-northeast and northeast of Yonpyong toward the base of Kumhwa, southeast point of the Chorwon-Kumhwa-Pyongyang triangle.

The Eighth Army communique said there was "little contact with enemy forces above Yonpyong during the day."

About Hwachon and north of the Hwachon reservoir, where the fighting has been fiercest in the past three days, Communist resistance "decreased" Wednesday, the latest communique said.

But the struggle in that mountainous central front area remained grim and the Allied forces scored only "limited" gains toward Kumhwa from the southeast, according to the official bulletin.

Heavy Opposition

At the east end of the giant Hwachon hydroelectric pool, the Communists continued to offer "heavy" opposition north and northeast of Yanggu. Farther east, however, only "light" contact was made with the enemy north-northeast of Inje, the communique related.

Along the eastern seaboard, the bulletin added, Allied forces ran into "sporadic" North Korean mortar and small arms fire west-southwest of Kansong Wednesday after crushing three Red counterblows Tuesday.

In the west sector, the Reds were slowly forced back by incessant Allied artillery, tank, small arms and aerial fire. But the enemy's fighting retreat was made to stronger defense guarding the core of the "Iron Triangle."

on the controls law, much of it from businessmen who claim that wage and price controls should be unlinked because they hamper rather than help production.

Want Increased Authority

On the other hand, defense secretary Marshall, mobilization chief Charles E. Wilson and others have insisted that the increased authority is necessary to curb inflation and get the defense production rolling.

The administration's bill contains a rent control section stronger than any passed since the end of World War II, a revision of the farm parity system to put it on a yearly rather than monthly basis and authority for the use of subsidies and government-owned plants to assure an adequate flow of defense items and strategic raw materials.

of U.S. China policy was a "miracle of contrived confusion." He said that in one instance the secretary was guilty of "outright perversion" or ignorance.

Knowland late yesterday released a telegram from former Vice President Henry Wallace in which Wallace sought to clarify a quotation attributed to him at the inquiry.

The California senator quoted Wallace as telling Chiang Kai-Shek in 1944 that American Communists were "taking a patriotic attitude in the U.S."

Wallace said in his telegram that he actually told the Chinese leader that "American Communists were going all out to support the war effort."

May End Testimony Friday

Republicans expected to keep Acheson busy on the witness stand until Saturday, but Chairman Russell (D) Ga., was still hopeful he could be dismissed late today.

The best practical estimate appeared to be that the secretary would not be free before Friday.

He will be followed by Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, military mission chief to China whose two reports on conditions there—in 1945 and 1947—are subjects of much debate in the testimony.

Former Defense Secretary Louis Johnson and W. Averell Harriman, foreign policy adviser to the president, will then follow in that order. After that, Russell will name a subcommittee to weed out the list of 100 witnesses to a more reasonable 10 or 15 for the inquiry.

There Are Definite Values in Funerals . . .

Whatever the cost of a funeral, it is an investment in memory—and there alone can the value be measured. If you can cherish memories of a service that was satisfactory in every way, you received good value whether the cost was much or little.

It is to give these extra values that Boyd Funeral Service maintains pleasingly homelike surroundings, the Hammond organ and other fine appointments. It is also why so many hours of personal service are accorded to every funeral regardless of its cost.

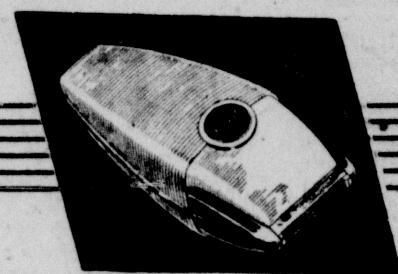

If you would like to know whether all of this gives an added value, ask any family we have served. They, of all people, are best able to answer that question.

In Memoriam

Marquis Dean Lichtenstine passed away two years ago today, June 6. Surrounded by friends we are lonesome.

In the midst of our pleasure we smile on our face, still a heartache.

Lonesome and grieving for you, Dear Dad, we miss you sadly. And we find the time long since you went.

And we think of you daily and hourly. And try to be brave and content. But the tears we have shed in silence.

And we breathe a sigh of regret. For you were our Dad, dear. And we'll remember you as you were.

When all the world forgets. Sadly missed by his wife, daughters and son.

HADASSAH CHAPTER HAS INSTALLATION

Installation of new officers were held in impressive services, at the closing meeting of the season for the New Castle Chapter of Hadassah, Tuesday evening.

Temple Israel was the scene of the event as Mrs. Irving Nixon presided at 8 p.m. Mrs. Jules Lipschutz opened the meeting with prayer. Splendid reports were given by Mrs. Hyman Frank about the Jewish National Fund; and Mrs. Leonard Smith on the H.M.O. project.

Mrs. Irving Nixon also gave her yearly report, and as delegate reported on the Western Pennsylvania Regional Conference recently held in Sharon, Pa.

Mrs. Pierson Caplan conducted the program that followed. Lou Kohn gave a detailed resume of the condition in the state of Israel and spoke of the war bonds. Mrs. Frank Baron delighted the audience with several vocal selections and she was accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Smith.

Installation of officers was then held and Mrs. Harry Greenberger of Sharon as the installing officers conducted the proceedings in a most novel manner. Mrs. Greenberger compared the organization of Hadassah to a great play—and the officers as a cast. A change of cast transpired with the installation of new officers:

Honorary president, Mrs. L. F. Kohn; president, Mrs. Irving Nixon; first vice-president, Mrs. Pierson Caplan; second vice-president, Mrs. Leonard Smith; third vice-president, Mrs. Harry Greenberger; financial secretary, Mrs. Ed Bunim; recording secretary, Mrs. Arthur Kohn; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ben Mossoff; treasurer, Mrs. Aba Fisher; trustees are: Mrs. H. Frank, Mrs. J. Mirow, Mrs. G. Slovinsky, and Mrs. A. Cohen.

Chairmen who presided at the beautifully arranged buffet table were Mrs. Ted Marlin and Minnie Miller.

Regular meetings of Hadassah are ended for the season, however, plans were made for a Palestine supplies garden party to be held in July.

FATHER'S DAY, ETC.

Something called Father's Day is approaching, according to "press releases" now flooding the mails.

According to the National Association of Greeting Card Publishers, indications are that perhaps Mom is beginning to recognize Dad as a fellow sufferer. The association reports more requests from mothers for whimsical cards for Father's Day than ever before.

But, the association says, "despite the praise they lavish on Dad, many of this year's cards remind him that Mom and the small fry can't be neglected even on Father's Day. Typical of the cards in this category is one showing a proud father as he follows a long line of men, all pushing baby carriages. The Father's Day verse sums it up like this:

You can join the Parade of Pappies
With a proud smile on your mug,
But you owe it all to BABY
So don't look so darn smug!

This is a nice lead into another piece of mail on the stork, that international symbol of expanding family life. The bird, it seems, currently is being blamed for an approaching manpower shortage in the United States. During the 1930 depression years, it seems, Mr. Stork didn't deliver enough babies for today's emergency needs.

But, coming to the defense of the stork, the National Geographic Society notes that few birds would be able to command a better defense if called upon to account for his actions. In the first place, the society observes, the stork has a well-nigh spotless record as a devoted family man. With order and dignity he lives in plain view of human neighbors, cherished by them for his service in the destruction of harmful rodents and insects and welcomed as a good luck omen by all who look for one.

The stork is found in various places in Europe and winters along the banks of Africa's Nile. Of his family only a distant cousin, the shy Wood Ibis of the southern coast, is a native of this continent.

PROBLEM OF NIGHT DRIVING SAFETY

Safety at night is one of the most troublesome elements in the problem of reducing street and highway accidents. The accident rate is much higher at night than in the day. It is complicated by a vicious circle.

Plainly the reason for more accidents at night is that drivers cannot see so well. Yet as the power of headlights has been increased to give the driver better illumination of the road ahead and of objects in his path, the brighter lights of oncoming cars have become more blinding and therefore a greater interference with the driver's vision. Further increases in the brightness of headlights tends to defeat its purpose.

In city areas the problem can be solved effectively by street lighting. Some city streets are now lighted so well that headlights are not really needed. In residential areas and the open country, however, such lighting is too costly.

Another possible solution is suggested by the industrial science research laboratory at Iowa State College, which has been studying the use of paints and materials which reflect light so well that they seem to be lights themselves.

These have been put to many advertising and decorative uses in the last few years. Used for marking vehicles, these reflective materials greatly increase the distance at which the vehicles can be seen and recognized at night, without increasing headlight power and therefore without adding to glare.

Good results also have been obtained in using these materials for road markers and for markers on the clothing of pedestrians. There seem to be exciting possibilities here worth continued exploration.

If night driving could be made as safe as day driving, a tremendous improvement in highway safety would be achieved at a single stroke.

REVEAL "SAFEST" HOLIDAY OF YEARS

It may be as remarkable as Ned Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council finds it to be, that only about 80 persons were killed in the heavy Memorial Day traffic. The statisticians had predicted 110 would die, and for almost two years we have become accustomed to a steadily rising toll, hitting 10,460 deaths in the first quarter of 1951 alone.

With 14,500,000 more cars on the road than in 1946 it has seemed obvious that the highways were becoming steadily more dangerous for everyone who ventured to drive. In the face of this trend, any reversal, particularly on a holiday, seems to offer some contrast to the prevailing gloom.

In this instance, the fact that approximately 30 persons were almost unaccountably luckier than had been expected makes it possible to say that Memorial Day was the safest holiday since the war and to recall that on only one other holiday in the same period—New Years Day, 1946—were there less than 100 persons killed in traffic.

All this is fine. But it is grasping at straws for encouragement, when the situation calls urgently for real action to reverse a terrible trend. The 35,000 deaths and almost two million casualties of last year should not be repeated again. Yet—except for this one day lapse—the statistics indicate that they will be, this year. This is no time for self-congratulations.

Housewives of Mafeking, South America, are complaining to authorities that hordes of black ants are eating laundry right off the line. Just think, though, how much ironing that saves 'em!

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

Seek Facts On Peace Rumors

Diplomatic observers throughout the world are seeking today to determine just what prompts the apparently firm conviction on the part of the British government that an early peace in Korea may be possible.

Official circles in London, obviously the foreign office itself, disclose that Britain's ambassador to Washington has been instructed to approach Secretary of State Dean Acheson and express the view that the time is ripe for a new peace approach.

No Optimism In U. S.

But there are no signs of optimism in Washington. There are none at the United Nations, where circles close to Trygve Lie indicate that he now holds out little hope that the communists would be willing to halt hostilities at the 38th parallel.

And a study of all information available in Tokyo, nerve center of the far east, brings to light no positive factors that would indicate a communist disposition to sue for peace at the present time.

Yet in addition to the foreign office, such sober publications as the London Times and London Telegraph seem to think there is hope.

"It would be hard," the Times said, "to imagine a more suitable moment for trying again to bring the Korean war to an end."

And the Telegraph declared: "It is quite probable that the communists might be willing to accept a cease-fire."

The conservative weekly publication Time and Tide has this to say:

"The defeat of the Chinese armies in Korea may provide the occasion for a new move by the 14 U. N. nations to re-establish peace."

Britain's attitude might be traced to one of two factors.

One is Secretary Lie's warning that the time is ripe for a new peace approach.

OILY BIRD WHO MIGHT GET THE WORM

That Stupid Man

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn't have believed that a man could be so stupid.

But there his letter was in the newspaper, in black and white, asking the Advice to the Married editor whether he or his wife should have the final say about where they would spend their vacation.

"I want to go to the seashore," he wrote, "and my wife wants to go to the mountains. Should I insist on going where I want to go, or yield to her wishes? Please help me."

Beyond Help

The man is beyond help, if you ask me.

Can you imagine any man, with so much as a grain of sense in his head, overruling his wife as to vacation plans? Going against her will, and taking her where she doesn't want to be taken?

The most perfect vacation on earth for any husband is to go where his wife insists on going, and then have everything go wrong.

After all, the average vacation lasts but two weeks, and a man can stand almost anything for that length of time. That leaves him 50 whole weeks in which to gloat over the misery he endured because of his frau's stubbornness.

I had wanted to spend my vacation at home, but Jean said the cool, clean air, the rest and peace of the place, and the change of food, would do us both worlds of good.

It rained ten of the 14 days we were there, and you'll never know the happiness that flooded my being as I sat on the porch, nursing the camera she had bought specially for the trip, and told her in a jovial tone what a slam-bang bunch of pictures we'd have to show people when we got home.

The cook obviously had been hired from a neighboring greasy spoon, and as I wrestled with a rubber heel cutlet I tingled with joy when I told Jean she was right, dead right, when she said we had stayed at home as, I believe, one of us had suggested.

My cup was filled to overflowing when, on the next to the last day, I sprained an ankle climbing up Old Hairless, or Old Round Knob, or some such mountain.

I went home a near wreck, and my wife was near one before the year was out.

(Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Some say the draft calls will continue small though if the war in Korea ends and if we don't get into trouble in Iran and if Eisenhower can find anybody in Europe willing to fight for Europe and if we don't try to staff, finance and run the world and if it doesn't rain.

But there may be a few "ifs" about this.

Anyway, Stalin hasn't marched on Europe yet. . . . Margaret apparently has delayed his "any moment" plans.

John Dos Passos was born in Chicago, Ill., Jan. 14, 1896. He is the author of a number of books and plays, among them Man's Initiation, which was reprinted in 1946 under the title of First Encounter; Three Soldiers, a book of essays; Rosinante on the Road Again, A Pushcart at the Court (verse), Streets of Night, Orient Express, Journeys Between Countries, Adventures of a Young Man, The Ground We Stand On, Tour of Duty, and The Grand Design. His plays are The Garbage Man and Airways, Inc.

But if engaged couples and newlyweds really wanted to make a useful pledge for helping each other, it would be a pledge to point out to each other his or her strengths and virtues and to celebrate continually the success in each other.

Perhaps the greatest pitfall to newlyweds is the temptations for each to begin talking to a relative or friend about some disappointment or shortcoming felt or observed in the other, and this friend laps up such talk as eagerly as a cat laps up spilled milk. Be too proud to stoop to such gossip lest you sabotage your marriage.

If you suppose the matter is serious enough to discuss with anybody, seek the help of trained professional marriage counselors.

Moral Integrity

You have married because you have had faith in each other's moral integrity. Each of you is going to strive without ceasing to deserve and maintain this faith by your spouse in you; and this may require tremendous self-discipline.

Plan to have children, if you really want to find security in marriage. As Dr. Henry Link points out in his recent book "The Way to Security," about the most apparent cause of unhappiness between couples is the unwillingness of one or both to have children. If you newlyweds postpone parenthood unduly long with the hope that you can better afford it financially later, you will risk the chance of never finding such a time or even of not being able physically to have children at all.

Let me advise that you read Dr. Link's book; also "Marriage for Moderns" by Dr. Henry A. Bowman.

Bible Thought

Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, and pray for them that despitefully use you. —Matt. 5:44.

Millions of young people throughout the land have taken the bit in their teeth and have set up housekeeping in the many small houses . . . that have been built either by themselves or by people interested in their future. The people interested in the future have been stockholders in the hundreds of Building and Loan Associations throughout the land. These young people have borrowed money for their home . . . have become a part of a community by paying their share of the community's financial obligation. . . . These small houses are more than mere houses . . . they are homes and a home becomes a home when loving care and kindness is applied.

Cancer Board Members Meet

Crusade Figures Now Total $18,360.80

At a quarterly board meeting of the Lawrence County American Cancer Society, Tuesday evening in The Castleton Hotel, Mrs. Blake H. Waldo, chairman of the 1951 Cancer Crusade, released the total cash figures to date.

Mrs. Waldo announced that $18,360.80 cancer money has been deposited in the bank with money outstanding in pledges. She assured board members that the $20,000 goal will be reached but urged district workers to turn in their money.

Dr. J. Wesley Post, president of the Lawrence County Society, who presided, also heard reports from Mrs. John W. McIlwraith of the educational committee, who told of the distribution of cancer literature and the society's showing of cancer films throughout the county. Dr. Mary Baker Davis, chairman of the service committee announced plans for the organization of a home visitors group and of a motor service. The home visitors group is to consist of men and women volunteers to work for cancer patients.

Prince Aly Khan May Have New Romance

PARIS, June 6.—(INS)—Rumors spread through Paris today that Moslem Prince Aly Khan may have found a new romance with another screen beauty, but his latest "date" brushed the gossip aside with a casual "we're just good friends."

The rumors first cropped up Sunday night when Aly—in virtual hiding since Rita Hayworth announced her plans for a divorce—stepped out into gay Parisian night-life with movie star Joan Fontaine, a recent arrival in the French capital.

And then the rumors spread some more last night when the handsome prince attended a formal reception given by Miss Fontaine for 80-year-old socialite and former British diplomat Sir Charles Mendl. He married Mrs. Yvonne Reilly, a young French woman, last week. Miss Fontaine attended the wedding ceremony. Several hundred guests besides Aly were present at the reception for Sir Charles.

Penn State Alumni Organization Formed In Lawrence County

Alumni of the Pennsylvania State college organized a Penn State Alumni association in Lawrence county Tuesday evening at a meeting in the ballroom of The Castleton hotel.

Head football coach Rip Engle and alumni secretary Ridge Riley of Penn State spoke briefly to the nearly 100 county alumni present and showed films—one on the college and the other on the Penn State-Rutgers game of 1950.

Officers were elected and by-laws adopted by the group. Officers elected were:

Walter Fulkerson, president; Ralph Gibson, vice president; Mrs. Reva Gormley, secretary and Howard Lyon, treasurer.

Walter Kieler opened the meeting and introduced Mr. Riley, who in turn introduced Mr. Engle. The officers took over after the election.

Refreshments were served after the showing of the films. Meeting to organize the association into a working unit will be held in the near future, it is announced by president Walter Fulkerson.

A number of high school seniors and coaches were guests at the meeting.

Make Plans For Future

G.N.C.A. Committees In Session Tuesday

Planning for the future marked the tone of the meeting of three committees of the Greater New Castle Association Tuesday in The Castleton hotel.

The three committees were streets, highways and transportation. Because their functions will correlate one with the other, the three chairmen and the members met with president James A. Rugh and executive vice president Eben L. Reid.

Ivor V. Davis is chairman of the streets committee, Paul W. Keely chairman of the highways committee and Harry L. Gormley chairman of the transportation committee.

This being the first meeting of the committees nothing definite was done, as was to be expected. But the chairmen and members did discuss some long range plans which will be discussed further and put into shape where they can be reduced to definite plans.

May Take Grand Jury Action Against Pittsburgh Reds

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—(INS)—Steps were being taken today in Pittsburgh to recall the April Federal grand jury for action against district communist party leaders.

U. S. Acting Attorney Edward C. Boyle said the April Federal grand jury would be recalled and the panel is expected to meet later this month.

The action followed a decision in the U. S. Supreme court earlier this week upholding the conviction of 11 Communist party leaders in New York in 1949.

Boyle said his office has been waiting for the high court's decision, and now he intends to proceed as speedily as possible against "violators of the law".

He refused to say how many district Communist party members the government would seek indictments against, but the figure has been estimated at between 30 and 35.

Margaret Truman
To Again Visit
London Theatres

LONDON, June 6. — (INS)—Margaret Truman—America's unofficial goodwill ambassador and no stranger to the stage herself—plans another trip to the London theater today, this one a sort of double-feature just like the movies back home.

On tap for the president's daughter during the day is some more sightseeing and then matinee and evening performances at St. James's theatre.

In the afternoon Miss Truman—who went out "on the town" last night with other young Americans and Britons—plans to see Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra." Then the young lady from Missouri is expected to attend an evening performance of George Bernard Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra" at the same theater.

Those two plays, starring Vivien

Leigh and Sir Laurence Olivier, rate as the current drama season's biggest hits.

Scotland Yard and American G-men are expected to resume their posts in the background during Miss Truman's planned appearances just as they did last night when she attended another play, "Waters of the Moon."

Miss Truman attended the theater with William (Billie) Wallace, 26-year-old, stepson of Herbert Agar, American journalist.

Historical Medical Highlights No. 20—

The Stomach With A "Lid"

ONE of the most fascinating experiments in medical history took place in the wild Great Lakes country in 1822. Alexis St. Martin was accidentally shot in the stomach, and on healing, the wound was found to have a kind of "lid." Dr. William Beaumont took advantage of this strange phenomenon to get the first accurate facts on digestion, and the digestive fluids. He inserted bits of food—tied onto strings—into St. Martin's stomach and from his studies stemmed a part of today's great knowledge of how to keep you healthy.

One of the most fascinating aspects of modern pharmacy work is the continual striving for perfection. Measurements and weights are carefully controlled . . . only fresh, full strength drugs are used.

WORK PROGRESSES ON NEW BELL TELEPHONE CO. BUILDING

Structural steel skeleton of the new Bell Telephone building at the corner of Mercer and South streets is rapidly being erected. Sidewalk superintendents fill the gallery every day watching the crane men and the riveters as they put the girders into place. The new building will house the Bell Telephone dial system equipment and offices when completed.

May Renew Lease For Buildings At Deshon Village

In the past few weeks rumors have been circulated over New Castle that the 21 tenants of the Deshon Village on the East Side were to be evicted, and the buildings torn down.

On Tuesday The News investigated the rumor and found the following facts.

Tenants of the Village have been given notice of eviction effective June 30.

James Beadel, renting agent of the Village was asked why the evictions were being made and said in effect,

"The five year lease between the city and the owner expires June 30. The city has thus far refused to extend the lease and hence we will have to tear the buildings down."

"This project is not permanent housing, being built for temporary use. Quite naturally the buildings are deteriorating and in the next few years the cost of repair and upkeep will overrun the rentals."

"If we can get a lease which would permit us to operate we would like to rent the buildings until tenants moved to other quarters. When a building was vacated, we would tear it down, repair and strengthen it and erect it on private ground."

This statement is slightly at variance with Mayor John F. Haven's statement. He said this "it is not true that the city will not renew the lease for Deshon Village. We want to see those buildings remain and serve as living quarters for citizens. The city is willing to renew the lease."

There it is. Mayor Haven was definite in his statement that a renewal was possible. If Mr. Beadel's statement is to be taken at face value, a new lease may be obtained and the residents of the Village will not be forced to look for new living quarters.

Grasslands Attract Many

Record Crowd At Field Day Tuesday

Lawrence county was represented by around 200 rural residents and their wives at the huge Grasslands Field Day, held at the Crawford County Home, near Saegertown, for western Pennsylvania farmers.

Here the group viewed research plots on grasslands and legumes which have been developed at the Crawford county home over the past two years, to determine the best types of grass for farms in this section.

Besides seeing 25 different demonstrations, in addition to exhibits and demonstrations of the newest type of farm machinery and equipment, there were demonstrations for the women on the cooking of poultry and eggs, and preparing food for deep freezing.

New Type Submarine Engines To Be Placed In Four U.S. Subs

CLEVELAND, June 6.—(INS)—A revolutionary new-type submarine engine designed to give the United States underwater supremacy will be installed in four new attack submarines this year. The 16-cylinder oil burner was unveiled in Cleveland late yesterday before a naval delegation headed by Navy Secretary Francis P. Matthews.

The engine, perfected after five years at a cost of more than 10 million dollars, was built by the Cleveland Diesel engine division of the General Motors Corp. Naval spokesman hailed the engine as a "revolutionary factor in undersea warfare" and Rear Admiral Wilson D. Leggett, deputy chief of the bureau of ships, said crafts powered by the new engine will have "superior characteristics to any submarines in the world today."

Dulles Confers In Britain On Peace Treaty For Japan

LONDON, June 6.—(INS)—Ambassador John Foster Dulles is expected to continue talks today with top British leaders on a proposed Japanese peace treaty.

Yesterday, after high-level conferences, Dulles said he hoped to reach with the British "complete agreement on what ought to be embodied in a peace treaty."

Authoritative British informants said meanwhile that Prime Minister Attlee and Foreign Secretary Morrison offered Dulles a new formula which would skirt the difficult question of Chinese participation in the peace talks.

Propose Boost In Expense Accounts For Legislators

HARRISBURG, June 6.—(INS)—Legislation authorizing a 50 per cent increase in the $100-a-month expense accounts paid Pennsylvania lawmakers is proposed today in legislation backed by the senate Republican leadership.

The bill, which would raise the cost of the expense accounts to $928,000 for 258 lawmakers during each two-year fiscal period, has the backing of majority leader John M. Walker of Allegheny, minority leader John H. Dent of Westmoreland and appropriations committee chairman Leroy E. Chapman of Warren. Lawmakers first voted themselves pay increases, with the approval of then-Governor Duff, four years ago. The money is paid each July and November.

MOM AND PATHOLOGIST
Mom felt a little lump in her breast one day. She asked her doctor about it right away.

The doctor told her that the safest way was for her to have the little lump removed and examined by a pathologist.

The pathologist makes what he calls a frozen section. He can tell in a few minutes whether the lump is dangerous or not. The surgeon gets the report from the laboratory and does whatever operation is necessary. A long time ago, a wise man said "A stitch in time saves nine".

The most popular field of study among women in the 1950 college year was education.

Brannan Strikes
Down Reports Of Wheat Shortage

WASHINGTON, June 6—(INS)

—Agriculture Secretary Brannan today struck down reports of an impending wheat shortage in the U. S. and predicted that supplies in the next 12 months will meet both foreign and domestic needs. Brannan forecast a 1951 wheat crop of nearly one billion bushels—about 682 million bushels of winter wheat and approximately 309 million bushels of spring wheat. This would be about the same as last year's wheat production.

In an interview, Brannan told International News Service that a crop of this size, plus an expected carryover of around 400 million bushels on July 1, should take care of both foreign and domestic demands, including about 200 million tons for India.

Dress a luncheon salad of cooked or canned fish flakes with sour cream mixed with a little chopped fresh dill. Crisp crackers or melba toast are good with this.

Ninety-Three Take Tests At Armory Tuesday

Forty-Two Fail
To Make Grade
During Exams

Tuesday proved to be another busy day for the State Police at the Cunningham Armory, Frank avenue, when driver's examinations were given to 93 applicants. Of the total number of applicants, 42 failed the tests and must retake the exam before they can qualify as a licensed driver on state roads. Various reasons were given for the failure, with driving technique proving the downfall of many potential operators who failed to meet the necessary requirements of the state law in operating a motor vehicle.

The officers will return to the Armory next Tuesday at 10 a.m. to give the tests to those applying for them. Tests end at 3:30 p.m. each week.

DUST CHASER (INS)—A New York manufacturer is producing a broom that becomes a dust chaser. Here's the way it works: The broom has an attachment that holds a piece of cloth that trails beneath the bristles. You just dampen the cloth before you begin to sweep. There's a spring lock that you squeeze and this permits you to bring a clean section of the cloth under the bristles when needed.

Senator Taft Says Red Threat May Last 10 To 20 Years

CHESTER, Pa., June 6.—(INS)—Sen. Taft (R) O., charges that Truman administration policies have built up Russian power "to a point where it presents a serious threat to our welfare."

As it is, Taft told the graduating class of Pennsylvania Military college, the U. S. may be threatened by Communism for another 10 or 20 years.

He said it was "difficult even for a United States senator" to get true information about our national policy in the fight against Communism.

"On the scale now proposed," Taft asserted, "one third of the work of our people will be going for government purposes and 80 per cent of federal activity will be military in nature."

The Republican leader warned that "if the people are not willing to govern, they will soon find men ready to do the governing for them."

Union FFA Is Tenth In State Poultry Contest

Union Township high school's F.F.A. chapter took tenth place in the "Chicken of Tomorrow" contest, an event which has been going on for the past ten years in the state to develop the finest type of poultry for market.

Union took fourth place in the district contest held at Butler last Friday, and the five top carcasses of dressed poultry from this area were entered in the state contest held at Coatesville on Monday.

Union's entry was a White Rock-White Cornish, as were many of the other entries submitted by F.F.A. groups. Sandy Lake, which won the district contest also won the state contest at Coatesville.

The chickens entered by the Union Township Chapter were raised by Dock Jacobson, of R.D. 8, Oakwood avenue, under the supervision of Alfred Igan, Union high agriculture teacher, who has brought the Union township agriculture contest to the forefront in the short time he has been on the faculty there.

Pittsburgh Area Packers Reported Stopping Butchering

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—(INS)—Pittsburgh district consumers today faced the possible denial of 500,000 pounds of beef weekly because many area packers have quit slaughtering.

James Wallace, district director for the office of price stabilization said it looks like a "sitdown strike" similar to the tactics used to eliminate OPA after World War II.

Observers predicted a new black market in meat will follow. Packers claim they cannot buy cattle in compliance with regulations of the office of price stabilization. Some packing house employees have been sent home and ordered to stay there until the situation clears up.

One of the city's biggest packing firm's, Oswald & Hess has stopped butchering cattle entirely.

Fiscal Year Ends For Government Within Few Weeks

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The annual appropriation bills for operating the federal government are piling up in Congress and only a few are expected to be enacted before the July 1 deadline.

This is the final month of the 1951 fiscal year and government agencies can not operate after June 30 unless Congress provides the funds for the next 12 months. Consequently, Congress will have to adopt a resolution before the month is over authorizing agencies to spend money at their normal rate until 1952 fiscal year funds have been approved.

The giant 60 billion dollar appropriation for the armed forces is not slated for enactment until late August or September. Chairman Mahon (D) Texas of the House military appropriations subcommittee anticipates that hearings on President Truman's recommendations will continue for another month. The House may act on the bill in mid-July, following which it goes to the Senate.

All appropriation bills originate in the House. So far it has approved five bills carrying funds for the interior, labor, treasury, postoffice and agriculture departments, for the federal security agency, and for various independent agencies, such as the atomic energy commission and the veterans administration.

The Senate has not yet acted on any of them, but it is expected to pass this month bills providing funds for the labor, treasury and postoffice departments, for the federal security agency, and for independent agencies.

Richards Speaks To Lions Club On Freedom Of Press

Addressing members of the New Castle Lions Club, Tuesday noon, at the club's weekly luncheon meeting, in The Castleton, Bart Richards, of The News, told the Lions that freedom of the press only exists in a free nation, and a free nation likewise only exists where there is freedom of the press.

He traced the history of a free press from the early colonial days, and of the events which established it in this country. Later our constitution guaranteed freedom of the press for all time in our country, which privilege will be enjoyed as long as this nation remains free, he stated.

Freedom of the press, however, Mr. Richards said, does not mean that this power should be abused by any newspaper. It gives them the privilege of reporting news in an unbiased manner, and of making editorial comment on matters which turn up in the news.

He cited several cases, where attempts to stifle the right of free press were taken to the supreme courts, resulting in victories for the press.

Bruce Marshall, manager of the

B. F. Goodrich Co. was admitted to the club as a new member.

It was announced by president Harry Helmick that there would be no meeting next Tuesday because of the picnic of the Ladies of the Lions.

A committee consisting of Earl T. Ramsey, Sam Rashid, and George F. Winter, Jr., was named to arrange installation ceremonies for the new officers of the club, the last Tuesday of June.

Some Figures On Housing Plan Rentals And Taxes

(Third of a series) Like every other industrial city there is a shortage of housing in New Castle but thus far no one has come up with any idea of the severity of the shortage.

Some instances have been uncovered where couples or families are living in cramped third floor apartments and some instances have been cited showing sub-standard living quarters.

The charge has been made that many rents are too high and this charge is at least partially true. Dwellings which have been converted into multiple tenant dwellings since the rent freeze and new dwellings built for rent are priced in many cases at levels that constitute gouging.

At the other end of the scale is the pre-freeze rental unit which is still renting for prices charged in 1941 and before. Many dwellings are rented for $30 per month and quarters no better which are outside the freeze are renting for $75 and $80.

Proponents of the low rental housing plan insist that their plan is the solution of the dilemma. Some facts concerning the operation of the plan might be interesting.

Low rental housing units for the most part are not for families on relief. Charles Abrams, executive housing administrator, is quoted as saying "low rental units are not charity rental units."

The purpose of low rental housing units is to provide decent housing for families unable to pay excessive rents. The money for the building of the project comes from a bond issue floated by the Housing Authority. These bonds are non-taxable, that is income from them cannot be taxed.

The income of tenants in these units must not be more than four times the rent charged. Usually the bottom rent is about $30 and the rent scale is graded upon the income of the applicants.

Apparently the yard stick used in setting rents as against income is the twenty five per cent ratio commonly accepted as the amount of rent that should be allocated from any income.

There have been some instances where relief recipients have been permitted to live in low rental units but the percentage is small. It has varied from as low as ten per cent to as high as twenty-five percent.

The total rent charged for the units includes the living quarters and such utilities as gas, electricity and water. About ten dollars is allowed per month for these utilities, the rest being known as "shelter rent". It is from this shelter rent that the money comes to amortize the bonds, 2 1/2 per cent per year over a period of forty years.

An example of how it works is this. A man applies for room in the low rental unit. He has a wife and two children under 18 years of age. For each child $100 per year is deducted from his income to gauge the rent. Assuming he makes $1800 per year, and deducting $200, his net income is figured at $1600. He would pay a rental of approximately $32 per month. Of this $10 would represent the utility service and $22 the shelter rent. Out of this 2 1/2 per cent is set aside for bond amortization.

Quite naturally the building needs maintenance and operation and where the total rents received do not cover the cost of amortization and maintenance, the government subsidizes the unit by contributing sufficient money to make up the difference.

Little thought of taxes is taken in this unit. About ten per cent of the shelter rent is allocated to the municipality in lieu of taxes. In the instance cited this would mean about $2.20 per month or $26.40 per year taxes. There are no insurance payments as it is understood the government does not carry insurance on the building.

Opponents of low rental housing point to these figures. A five room dwelling would cost about $10,000 to erect under present day prices and this would be a very ordinary home. Erected by private capital it would be assessed at about $4000 and would pay a total of 37 1/2 mills tax, twenty to the school district of New Castle, eleven to the city and 6 1/2 to the county. The tax bill would amount to $150. Against this is the token tax payment of $22 paid by the occupant of the low rental unit.

For this $22 token tax payment the occupant and his family would get the same service as any other taxpayer, fire and police protection, garbage collection, sewage disposal, street improvements and the like. In other words there would be a shortage of $128 in taxes per unit which would be absorbed by taxpayers in private dwellings.

Just what the income maximum for low rental occupants in New Castle would be is not known. Just how many families there are who could qualify for low rental housing is not known.

This information is promised but has not as yet been made available.

Five From County Sent To Bainbridge

It was announced today by chief recruiter James B. Hodge of the New Castle Naval recruiting station that five from Lawrence county were transferred Tuesday morning to Bainbridge, Md. for basic training.

Those enlisting here were: Wendell Ray Foust, R. D. 1, Volant; Harold Edward Beltz, R. D. 1, New Castle; George Albert Mahalic, 1802 South Jefferson street; John Thomas Henry, R. D. 6, Butler road and David Elder Withers, 200 Sumner avenue, New Castle.

Production Of Ice Cream Shows Great Increase

WASHINGTON, June 6.—(INS)—Dairy officials say the increase in ice cream production per person in the last quarter century has been greater for that of any other important dairy product except evaporated milk.

Americans will eat close to four gallons of ice cream apiece this year, which is the 100th anniversary of the ice cream industry.

In 1851 Jacob Fussell a Baltimore milk dealer found himself in a dilemma. After contracting with local dairy farmers to take all their milk production, he found himself with a surplus supply.

His fluid milk customers could not use it so he turned to the old home recipes for ice cream and began to manufacture and sell it—a venture which proved so successful he later started plants in other East Coast cities.

The recipes were known in Europe and Asia, but as the International Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers point out, it took American initiative and mass production-distribution methods to make the glamor dish of the dairy industry a popular one.

In 1899 producers were turning out close to five million gallons a year. Today they are setting their sights on a billion gallon total.

Currently almost 10 billion pounds of cream and milk solids go into the product. And dairymen aren't the only ones to benefit. Manufacturers are also using well over 200 million pounds of fruits and nuts a year while corn growers and sugar producers also share the ice cream dollar.

We've been looking at surveys, and it seems that just about everyone wants a better car than the one he's now driving.

So we know how you feel, and we'd like to help you make your dreams come true.

We'd like you to discover how fine a fine car can be.

We'd like you to stretch out in the room of a ROADMASTER—feel the luxury of its double-depth cushions—stroke the fine texture of its fabrics.

We'd like you to know the proud levelness of its ride—and its gentle obedience to your hand on the wheel.

We'd like to show you the many extras this custom-built Buick provides—at no extra charge when we come to make out a bill of sale.

But above all, we'd like you to experience two thrills found exclusively in ROADMASTERS.

One is the smooth might of its Fireball Engine. The other is the supreme simplicity of Dynaflo Drive, which is, incidentally, one of the many features included in the price.

We try to hold down our enthusiasm in talking about this masterful beauty.

We might claim—you'll find more room—more comfort—more luxury—a smoother ride—more conveniences—more thrill in a ROADMASTER than in any other car in the fine-car field.

But why spoil the thrill of discovery? Come find out for yourself how completely a 1951 ROADMASTER fulfills the dreams of the car you hope sometime to own.

And let us whisper something to you: The cost of making this step to ROADMASTER ownership is less than most people believe.

Infant's Body Found Buried

Found Several Hours After Missing Mother Had Been Located

LITCHFIELD, N. H., June 6.—(INS)—The body of a two-month-old infant boy was found Tuesday buried in a shallow grave, four hours after the mother, attractive wife of a socialite farmer, was found wandering in rain-soaked woods.

Mrs. Mary McElwain, 28, the former Mary Redfield, of Pasadena, Calif., was taken to a hospital in Nashua. Police said she suffered considerable loss of blood from a deep cut inflicted with a carving knife.

Police chief Joseph Regan of Nashua said the wound was self-inflicted. In addition, state police said the mother attempted to drown herself.

Bloodhounds Find Woman
A bloodhound-led posse found Mrs. McElwain less than a mile from her farm home.

Police had begun dragging the Merrimack river because the blanket and shawl of the infant, William, Jr., were found floating in the stream.

Later the hounds led searchers to a shallow grave, a quarter of a mile behind the McElwain home.

Officials said an autopsy would be performed to determine the cause of the infant's death.

Mrs. McElwain and the child left home Monday night in a rainstorm. The husband, William, Sr., a prominent Litchfield farmer and war veteran, returned home after an hour's visit in town and found a note from his wife. It read:

"I'm going down to the Merrimack."

McElwain is the son of Mrs. Converse Peabody of Boston and socialite broker Donald M. McElwain, and a grandson of the late shoe manufacturer, William M. McElwain.

The McElwains were married in 1947 at Pasadena, where they lived for a time before moving east.

Mayor Lawrence To Be Questioned In Probe Friday

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—(INS)—The state's special grand jury—probing corruption and graft in the city government—agreed to begin questioning Mayor David L. Lawrence in Pittsburgh Friday so as not to interfere with his plans for a European trip.

Originally Assistant Deputy Attorney General Robert M. Entwistle had asked the mayor to appear June 19 and bring with him income tax records from 1946 through 1950, records of assets and liabilities from Dec. 31, 1946 through May 31, 1951, cancelled checks, stubs and bank statements and records of real and personal property.

Lawrence balked at the June 19 date and accused the grand jury of trying to prevent his trip to Europe which is to begin June 15. He termed the probe a "fishing expedition."

But last night Entwistle wrote the mayor and asked him to appear Friday. His conciliatory letter stated that "we had no desire to inconvenience you and... we regret we overlooked... that you planned to sail for Europe before the date we set."

Mayor Lawrence will speak to the international meeting of mayors in Brighton, England, June 25 as part of his vacation abroad.

Explains Benefits Of Social Security Partial 'Retirement'

You do not have to be wholly or permanently "retired" to get retirement payments under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance system, according to Myron Milbourn, manager of the New Castle Social Security office. The numbers of people coming into his office confused on this point prompted him to make the explanation.

"Actually," Mr. Milbourn pointed out, "the new Social Security law makes it possible for insured people 65 and over to collect retirement benefits while still earning up to $50.00 a month on covered jobs. The old limit of $14.99 was changed on last September 1. Even the $50 limit does not apply to earning from work not covered by Social Security. Neither does it apply to people age 75 or over."

"The law is simply that a person between 65 and 75 years of age cannot collect benefits for any month in which he earns more than $50 from work covered by Social Security. No amount of earnings or income from other sources will affect his right to benefits. Insured people age 75 or over can collect even though working full time on jobs covered by Social Security, or for that matter, any job.

"Another point we'd like to get across," the local manager continued, "is that anyone now age 65 or over very likely is insured if he has worked as much as a year and a half, at any time back to January, 1937, on Social Security-covered jobs."

Mr. Milbourn invites residents of this area who are eligible for benefits under the new law to get in touch with his office, located at 500 Frew Building, New Castle, Pa.

Two New Born Girls Are Joined Together

TORRINGTON, Conn., June 6. (INS)—Two new born girls, joined together at the chest, gained strength rapidly at a Torrington hospital today while medical authorities studied their case. The Siamese twins were born to a young Torrington couple, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Litchfield. Both babies and mother were reported in good condition today.

A medical study of the case has not yet been completed, but doctors said the two girls probably never will be separated. They are joined from the sternum to the umbilicus and have only one liver and apparently only one heart.

Hospital officials said the 20-year-old mother has been told about the twins, but has not yet seen them. The two girls were the first children born to the young couple.

WELFARE PASSED UP

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Two elderly persons walked into the Arizona state auditor's office and returned two checks for $25 each, paid them for old-age assistance. The couple told the auditor, Jewel Jordan, they had reappraised their financial status and found they did not need the assistance.

DESERTIONS UP
BILBAO, Spain.—Desertions of crew members of Spanish merchant vessels are producing headaches among ship operators. Several hundred cases of deserting sailors have been recorded in recent months and the operators are a loss to cope with the problem.

"E Pluribus Unum" was first used as a motto on a coin on the half eagle in 1795.

New All-Time Records Set By U.S. Steel

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—(INS)—The U. S. Steel Corporation reported today a new all-time monthly record production of 2,056,262 tons of ingots at the company's Pittsburgh and Chicago district works.

At the same time, Big Steel announced a new all time record in shipments of 1,588,814 tons of steel rolling to customers.

Contributing to the new production mark, the company reported, was a new monthly open hearth record at the Homestead Works where 382,735 ingot tons were produced in May, exceeding by more than 22,000 tons the old mark.

Four rolling mills at the Homestead Works set new all-time records, the 45-inch mill with a production of 200,812 tons in May exceeding the previous world record set in May 1949 by 5,669 tons.

Raising Artichokes Hobby Of West State St. Man

Raising artichokes may be considered a lot of bother to most people—but to William Pascarella of 1237 West State street, it is just another hobby.

Always having what is considered a "green thumb," Mr. Pascarella finds that time he spends in his garden and see "things grow." Gardening is his hobby.

Learning that weather conditions in this part of the country are adverse to raising artichokes, he decided to give it a try. Three years ago he planted the artichoke seed. The plant grew rapidly, but did not bear any artichokes. This year is the first year that any artichokes appeared—and the calendar states that the plant is three years old.

The plant now bears two artichokes, and there are indications that others may follow.

Raises Fig Trees Also

In addition to his miniature green house, this Pennsylvania railroader is busy tending to fig trees that originally came from Italy and has thus far produced many figs. He has two black fig trees and one white fig tree.

A lemon tree that bears large size lemons; a Brazilian nut tree (the latter tree which resembles a huge bush) are other favorite hobbies of Mr. Pascarella.

Keeping a full time job as blacksmith on the railroad, Mr. Pascarella finds that the time he spends at home in his garden not only gives him self satisfaction at seeing plants grow, but it affords him many hours of relaxation.

Bingo Is Banned In New Jersey

TRENTON, N. J., June 6.—(INS)—Bingo was banned Tuesday in the state of New Jersey as an illegal form of gambling.

The ruling, announced by Attorney General Theodore D. Parsons, in an order to county prosecutors, is expected to affect games conducted by churches, fire companies, political organizations and fraternal groups as well as professional operators.

The prosecutors were ordered to crack down on all games of the bingo type in which the skill of the player is not the predominant factor in determining the winner.

The attorney general said he has received many complaints about the operation of bingo games at traveling carnivals and amusement places.

Says U.S. Can Cope With Any Weapons Enemy Can Produce

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—(INS)—A well known New York hospital authority is confident the United States has the knowledge and skill to cope with any weapon an enemy is likely to produce.

But, Dr. Marcus Kogel, commissioner of hospitals of New York City, told the Catholic Hospital Association:

"Our skill and our know-how will be useless if we are not organized and prepared. Our failure to prepare would be the very weakness an enemy would exploit to the utmost."

Dr. Kogel pointed out that for the first time, the nation faced an enemy with the power to attack our cities in force with frightening weapons.

Leaves For Alaska To Seek Secret

NEW YORK, June 6.—(INS)—Explorer Walter A. Wood left New York for Alaska Tuesday to see if he can find out the mechanism by which molten rock flows miles beneath the surface of the earth.

Wood, New York director of the Arctic Institute, said his expedition, "project snow cornice," plans to drill a 2,000 foot hole into an Alaskan glacier to make a scientific study of rock and ice flowage.

Said Wood: "It is at present impossible to study rock in its molten state and learn at first hand the mechanism by which it flows miles beneath the surface of the earth."

News Briefs From City Hall

Machines, listed as "gaming machines," brought the city $3,945, and music boxes earned $1,942 for the city during 1949, according to a report delivered to Council by Controller Edith Cleaveland.

Nick C. Caravelli, Jr., Maitland street, has been employed by the city as a painter's helper. He was recommended by Police Chief Robert D. Hanna. He will help paint street safety lines. He recently was honorably discharged from the army.

According to a letter from the New Castle Council of Churches, it passed a resolution May 21 favoring federal housing. The letter, signed by Secretary Emma L. Patton, was submitted to Council yesterday.

Council will not sell any of the nine lots in West Winter avenue to persons who offered bids recently. They have decided finally, after some discussion, to auction off the lots at a future date.

Albert M. Madden, 1608 Albert street, has received a permit from the city to build a $10,000 home. O. S. McCann, 106 North Ray street, and H. K. Wilson, 802 Vogan street, have received permits to build garages.

Contractors have installed sanitary sewers and graded Warren avenue between Stanton avenue and Cascade street; Ryan avenue between the same streets, and Randolph street between Addis street and Arlington avenue.

Employees of a contractor for the city have begun putting on the brick veneer on the front of the new city streets department structure at Bridge and Shenango streets. The roof on one portion is being delayed awaiting arrival of steel.

The United States steel industry has about half a million stockholders.

Marshall Warns West Point Grads Of Problems Ahead

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 6.—(INS)—Defense Secretary Marshall warned 476 graduates at the U. S. Military Academy on Tuesday that they will face difficulties and misunderstandings as officers in an "army of democracy."

The defense secretary advised them to learn all they can about the other services, as well as the army, and to understand they must compose "the workings of a democracy as they apply to our military forces."

Many distinguished guests witnessed the colorful graduation ceremony in the field house, West Point's indoor sports arena.

Among those on the platform as General Marshall delivered the graduation address were: Frank Pace, secretary of the army; Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, assistant secretary of defense; Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, chief of the air force; Air Marshal Curtis of the Royal Canadian air force; Dr. Grayson L. Kirk, acting president of Columbia university, and Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Roses were the first flowers used to make perfume.

THEY BOTH WON

OKLAHOMA CITY—On Feb. 19, 1932, Oklahoma's present governor, Johnston Murray, met his future wife, Willie Emerson. It was at the Huckins hotel during a state Democratic meeting. They were backing different candidates for vice chairman. Murray's man won. Miss Emerson won her man.

Brothers Are War Victims

Second Of Wampum Family Is Casualty

Mr. and Mrs. John Crespo of RD 1, Wampum, have received word of the second of their sons to become casualties in the Korean war, with the announcement just received that S-Sgt. Phillip M. Crespo, aged 21 years, was seriously wounded in combat action on May 24.

Another son, Pvt. John T. Crespo, aged 22 years, has been missing in action since the opening days of the Korean conflict, being listed on the casualty list last July.

A third son is overseas in Korea, Pvt. Charles Crespo, also being in the combat zone. Charles and Phillip met in Korea early in May, the first time they had seen each other in three years.

A sad fact in connection with the wounding of S-Sgt. Phillip Crespo is that he was scheduled to have left Korea last month to return to this country under the rotation program in effect among overseas troops in the Korean area.

Sgt. Phillip Crespo enlisted in 1947 and after training at Camp Stoneman, Calif., was assigned to overseas duty with the 24th infantry division last November. He had only been promoted to staff sergeant last month, the family had been informed.

The group, composed of women from United Presbyterian congregations in this community, will meet in September at the Bethel church.

Legal Battle Looms In Divorce Suit Against Gable

HOLLYWOOD, June 6.—(INS)—A legal battle between "King" Clark Gable and Lady Sylvia Ashley loomed today over the divorce complaint filed against the handsome movie hero by his estranged wife.

Gable yesterday answered the five-day-old divorce suit by specifically denying he was a "cruel" husband and challenging Mrs. Gable's right to any alimony or community property.

The answer was filed through Attorney W. I. Gilbert at the Los Angeles hall of records. Mrs. Gable's suit was filed in Santa Monica with Jerry Geisler as attorney.

In his action Gable said his wife "is in no need of financial support. She is a millionaire in her own right."

The expected legal fireworks may be in the offing not only over financial matters but on Lady Sylvia's charge that Gable was a cruel husband.

The 9530th Air Force Reserve squadron will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Reserve Armory in the Greer building.

Meetings will be held every Thursday effective this date to enable participating personnel to receive sufficient points for promotion.

Notification has been received from headquarters of the First Air Force that all reservists remaining, unassigned to an active unit will have their grade terminated and be placed in a non-active re-

GOVERNMENT HOUSING IS NOT FREE

ATTENTION!
Mr. and Mrs. HOME OWNER and TAXPAYER

In the protection of your interests as a home owner, it is time for you to act.

In all seriousness, is it fair that you be asked to add to your burden of TAXES and MORTGAGE PAYMENTS a part of your neighbor's rent?

This may sound fantastic, but it is exactly what will happen if City Council approves the request and asks that a Public Housing project be established in New Castle.—Each year for the next 40 years you and your children will be paying in local taxes the deficit created by the cost of municipal services for any Public Housing project.—In addition, you will pay in Federal taxes the difference between the economic rent for each unit and the rent which a favored few pay as rental.—No Public Housing is free.

The Wampumites battered Buccione and Frank, while Book held the Elliotts to five hits.

Palagallo, Badger, McCready and Vance hit for extra bases, while Brown and Razzano, the former of Wampum and the latter of Elliotts, delivered home run smashes.

Franks, Hutnick and DeSimone, Palagallo and Brown, and Rainey, Hutnick, Rainey and DeSimone staged double plays.

Two errors by Lombardo and Hutnick were made.

As a result of Tuesday's games, Elliotts, Universal and Croton are bunched with 6-3 for second place with Bessemer 5-5 trailing.

Tribe Stops Niagara Falls, 12 To 8; Kowalski, Magula Slam Homers; Schedule Double-Bill For Tonight

New Castle could be a rabid baseball town, as over 2,200 fans can attest, after turning out last night in chilly weather, to cheer the Indians home 12-8 over the Niagara Falls Citizens, for the ninth straight tribe win.

Tonight New Castle and Niagara Falls will play a scheduled twin-bill at Flaherty Field, the first game getting under way at 7 o'clock. With perfect baseball weather prevailing, a large crowd will no doubt be on hand to try and cheer the Indians to 11 straight wins.

The turnout warmed the hearts of Al Scarazzo and his 25-board of directors, who sought to learn just what interest there was here among the baseball fans for organized ball. The answer rang in the throats of the 2,200 fans as they roared their approval when Walt Kowalski and Steve Magula banged out terrific homers to put the Indians in front.

Zedalis Wins In Relief

The veteran Stan Zedalis did a swell relief job last night, going to the rescue of Bill Ciske in the fifth and granting but three hits and two runs the remainder of the way.

Manager Al Milnar has nominated Ken Geer (1-0) for the opening game of the twin-bill tonight, and Paul Krieger (4-1) for the night-cap affair. Manager Jim Davis will use either Friel or Fenchak the first game tonight, and will come back with the league leading hurler Ken Yount in the night-cap.

The Niagara Falls team had an eight-game winning streak broken by the Indians last night, to put them just four percentage points ahead of the hustling Indians with .600 to .594 for the locals. Erie's double loss to Butler last night 6-4 and 7-6, left Niagara Falls 7½ games behind the leaders, and New Castle eight games back.

Indians Come From Behind

The Indians came from behind last night after spotting the Niagara team a 4-0 lead in the first three innings as a result of a terrific 375-foot homer by "Poison" DiJohnson in the third inning with two mates aboard.

The Indians batted in five runs in the last of the third, to the delight of the fans, on four hits and three walks, driving starter Shaffer off the hill with Manager Jim Davis, in an effort to ease the pitching staff burden, taking over with no one retired and giving up eight hits and eight runs over the final six innings. In the big third inning, DiJohnson, Kowalski, Magula, Bilo and Toles having singles.

Kowalski Batting Star

Niagara Falls tied it up 8-8 in the seventh but the Indians came back with four in the eighth, icing the contest with a four-run outburst on three hits, one a homer by Magula, his fifth of the year.

Kowalski's homer in the sixth was his sixth of the year. The "Blond Bomber" scored Green ahead of him. Kowalski hit a bases full single in the eighth giving him five runs batted in for the night on three hits in three official trips. He walked once and was hit by Shaffer in the first inning.

Fans Enjoy Game

Magula, Toles and Frisina chipped in two hits apiece as their contribution last night. Ciccone, with three hits, all singles led the Falls team at bat, while DiJohnson, DePerro and Larry Rush had two hits each.

Despite eight errors the fans enjoyed the game immensely and cheered for the sensational plays and hitting performances. DiJohnson turned in the circus catch of

Scotts Nip Bossert, Second Place Up For Grabs Thursday Night

Two big innings provided a one-run win Tuesday night at Rose Avenue Field for Scotts, who scored seven in the fourth and three in the seventh, to nip Bossert, 10-9.

The winners came from behind to win the game in the last inning, and maintained a hold on second place in the city softball standings.

Jenkins and Henderson hit safely three times for Scotts, and Placiodero a home run for Bossert. Score by innings: R H E

Scotts	0	1	3	2	9	9	2

SECOND PLACE AT STAKE

Thursday night at Gaston Park, Ross-Morelli (7-3) will play Scotts (8-3) for the league runnerup position. Suzov will go for Ross-Morelli, and Richards for Scotts.

White Sox, Dodgers Have Comfortable League Leads

By HOWARD SIGMUND

(L. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 6 — Rumor has it that White Sox spies are converging on Ebbets Field today to get a line on the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Rumor may be all wet, but the chest-beating wizard White Sox are for real, as is their 3½ game American League lead, and their David-Goliath mastery over the Red Sox.

White Sox Win

The Bums are beginning to open up space on the rest of the gang as they lead by 4½ games.

Take the Sox, for instance. They racked up the Sox, 10 to 2, yesterday for their 18th win in their last 20 starts.

The dodgers moved to the best advantage they have enjoyed since the 1947 season when they beat the second-place St. Louis Cardinals, 3 to 2.

Allie Reynolds of the New York Yankees stopped Cleveland's nine-game winning streak when he beat the Indians, 8 to 2, on a five-hitter.

In other American League games, Gene Bearden of the Detroit Tigers blanked the Washington Senators, 4 to 0.

Ned Garver also allowed but got hits as he pitched the St. Louis Browns to a 10 to 1 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics.

Sal Maglie won his ninth straight game, most in the majors this season, as he pitched the New York Giants to a 3 to 2 squeaker over the Cincinnati Reds.

Pirates Win

Bob Rush of the Chicago Cubs allowed the Philadelphia Phillies five hits and beat them, 3 to 2.

Rookie Paul LaPalme made his first start as a success as he pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates to an 8 to 0, five-hit shutout win over the Boston Braves.

Cross Country Hops Completed By Pilots

Wilson Aviation at New Castle Airport reports that despite cloudy weather and intermittent thunder and lightning, cross country hops continue at the local port.

Completing flights over the past few days were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rhodes of Ellwood City, who flew to Indiana, Pa., and return in their Cruiser, Paul Bradigan made his cross country flight to New Kensington and return, while Dr. Albert Opp flew to Sharon, Mercer and Grove City and return.

Numerous planes from other ports have been making landings at the local port. On Monday, E. J. Thomas of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, with Mrs. Thomas and their daughter Jane, Mr. and Mrs. J. Judd, director of public relations for Goodyear and Rev. and Mrs. Harry Rose arrived here in the Lockheed Lodestar which carries ten passengers. The pilot of the ship was R. R. (Bud) Seidner, former Youngstown area airport operator. The co-pilot was W. C. Hollbrook of Youngstown. Mr. Thomas spoke at commencement exercises at Westminster College.

Other ships landing recently were from Oregon; New Haven, Conn.; Canton; Youngstown; Olean, N. Y.; Washington; Sharon; Pittsburgh; Emlenton and Grove City.

HILLSVILLE LOSES

Penwell relieved Tiratto in the fourth inning. Allegro took over for Badurik in the sixth inning. M. Caldararo, Kozlowski, Tanner and B. Pezulo hit for extra bases.

WIN IN FIFTH INNING

Croton vanquished Bessemer 5 to 1 yesterday, getting six hits to Bessemer's four. Grist pitched for the losers. Three errors were made behind him while two were committed behind Cook. In strikeouts Grist had six to four. Rogan of Croton was credited with stealing a base. Nicholson batted in two runs. Gentile, Parenti and D. Cook each batted in one. Veterans Council Conducts Meeting

New Castle Veterans Council members gathered in the Legion home Monday evening with commander Edward A. DeCarbo in charge. A full report was given by Earl Moffatt, who was in charge of the Memorial Day services. He extended to all veterans organizations a fine commendation for their participation.

George Hunt gave a report of the progress being made by the Boy Scouts who are to erect a miniature statue of liberty in the city soon. All veterans are to assist, Mr. Hunt stated. The unveiling is planned on July 4.

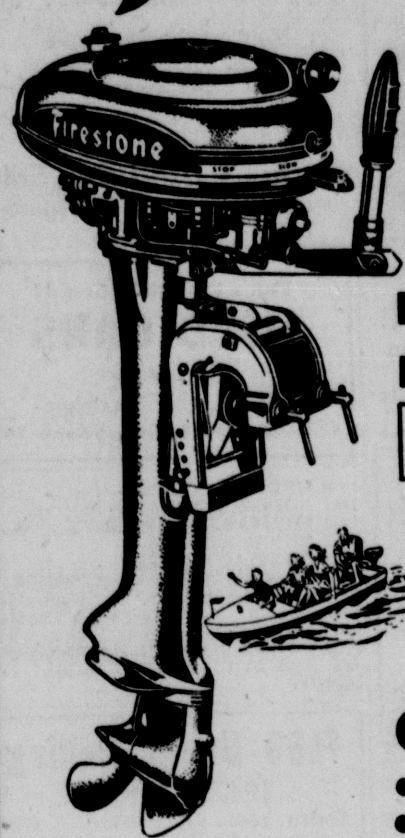

Plans are also being made to have the veterans council formed into a Lawrence county council instead of a city council. Manning Weller of the American Legion and George Hunt of the VFW posts are to contact veterans groups that will definitely put this move under way at the next meeting, July 2. The session will be in the Legion home.

Honor Man Who Indirectly Saved Over 100 Lives

A man who indirectly has saved over 100 lives among the men who climbed power line poles is being honored today at the Edison Electric Institute's annual convention at Denver. One of those whose lives were saved was a lineman of Pennsylvania Power company in New Castle, George Maxwell.

In 1933 E. W. Oesterreich, general superintendent of distribution for Duquesne Light company, Pittsburgh, developed what is known as the pole top method of artificial respiration. This method, which permits respiration of a stricken lineman without the loss of time in lowering him to the ground, has already saved the lives of over 100 men who came in contact with high voltage electricity on top of a pole.

Presented with Citation

Mr. Oesterreich was presented with a citation for distinguished service and a commemorative bronze medal created for the occasion. Taking part in the ceremonies was George Fritz of Duquesne Light company, who suffered electric shock 18 years ago and was saved by the Oesterreich method. His rescuer, Michael Butchko, of Duquesne Light, thus became the first of some 95 men who have used the pole top method and have received the Edison Electric Institute medal for resuscitation.

The man who successfully used this method in Pennsylvania Power company was Emerson Davies, a lineman for the company in New Castle, who was working on the same pole with Mr. Maxwell in October of 1946. Since shortly after the development of the method of respiration by Mr. Oesterreich, Pennsylvania Power company linemen had been instructed in its use; hence Mr. Davies, as are other linemen of the company, was competent to administer it promptly.

The importance of this method lies in the fact that the time required to lower the victim to the ground for application of the prone method frequently results in a fatal loss of time.

The bronze medal which Mr. Oesterreich received for his citation is a dramatic symbolizing of a pole top rescue and was executed by sculptor Karl Lang, who studied with Gutson Borglum and worked with him on the Stone Mountain, Ga., and Mt. Rushmore, S. D., carvings of historical figures.

Campers To Register For Camp East Brook

Hurry, hurry! Register for Camp East Brook, is the cry heard around the YWCA. There is room for only fifty. The second period is almost full and other periods are filling up rapidly!

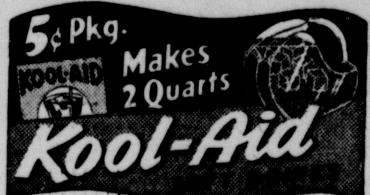

It won't be long now until Tuesday, June 19, when camp opens! Miss Helen McQueen and Miss Carol Foster will be in charge at the pool. Miss Marguita Fox will teach craft, and Miss Shirley Weber, music.

The nurse is Mrs. James Uber and Mrs. R. G. Eakin will be the camp director again this year.

Camp has been cleaned, polished and brightened—and is just waiting for a bevy of girls to take it over.

Marie and Viola Graham will be back to hold sway in the kitchen—and the campers know that plenty of good food was forthcoming last year.

Better come in and register now!

Mrs. Shaffer is past president of Billy Simpson Auxiliary 470 V.F.W. of Erie; past president of Post 315 Auxiliary; past president of tri-county council; department chief of staff of the department of Pennsylvania.

Endorses YMCA Free Swimming Campaign

In an interview with General Secretary Robert L. Meermans of the local Y.M.C.A., A. H. Gonick, president of the Community Chest of Lawrence County, expressed his endorsement of the Free Swim Campaign, for boys from 8 to 16 years of age.

This will be the 38th such campaign conducted by the Y.M.C.A. Mr. Gonick said. "The importance of a practical knowledge of swimming is obvious and every boy should take advantage of the opportunity to learn how to swim. He called attention to the fact that swimming commands the use of many muscles of the body, develops lung power, and trains for emergencies in water sports."

In addition Gonick stated, "I am
